Swing for the Fences: Partner with a 3PL Warehouse

Choosing the right third-party logistics warehouse partner is crucial for your company's success. The right warehouse operator understands your business, improves your efficiency, maximizes flexibility, and saves you money.

But how do you find the right 3PL warehouse for you? Start here: Find a member of the International Warehouse Logistics Association featured in this directory.

IWLA members do business best. IWLA is the only supply-chain industry organization focused solely on the 3PL warehouse segment. The members listed here are the top warehouse logistics service providers in the industry. Their supply chain experience and resources help your business.

Here are just a few of the benefits of working with an IWLA member:

- ▶ Expertise: IWLA members know warehousing, fulfillment, e-commerce, labeling, kitting, light manufacturing, logistics, and more. They understand the latest trends and best practices, and they can help businesses improve efficiency and profitability.
- ▶ Resources: IWLA members access a wide range of resources to better serve your business. They understand warehouse-related legal issues, security, safety, chemicals and hazardous materials, food handling, rail/intermodal services, trucking, and the technology that ties the entire process together.
- ▶ Network: IWLA members belong to a network of professionals who learn from each other, sharing experiences, networking, and building long-lasting professional relationships.
- ▶ Reputation: IWLA members operate some of the top logistics companies across North America. This translates into peace of mind for you.

Turn to this directory—and to the online Find-a-Warehouse tool at www.IWLA.com—first when seeking a quality warehouse (or when you need a service provider to the warehousing industry).

If you are looking for more ways to knock your business out of the park, don't miss the 2027 IWLA Convention & Expo. Join us May 2-4, 2027, in Puerto Rico, U.S.A., to meet with warehouse industry leaders from across North America that are here to help grow your business.

Interested in learning more about the convention and other IWLA services? We welcome your participation. Turn to www.IWLA.com for the latest updates and offerings. Or call me anytime: IWLA is YOUR resource for warehouse logistics.

I hope our paths cross in the future.

With state-of-the-art automated facilities, top tier technology and a dedicated team, we ensure that your goods move seamlessly across the country from production to destination.

We're probably not the right 3PL for you.

And we're okay saying that out loud.

If you're shopping on price alone, we're not your match.

If you want a partner who'll hand you off to a junior account manager after the ink dries, keep looking.

If you want a 3PL whose strategy shifts every time a new PE firm takes the reins, that's definitely not us.

We've been privately held for 162 years. Consistent core values and forward-thinking that propel your business.

If that sounds like the partner you've been looking for, we should talk.
